THE TASK OF DEDICATING A PUBLICATION IS A DIFFICULT ONE, FOR THERE ARE TIMES WHEN THE WRITTEN EXPRESSION OF THANKS AND APPRECIATION BECOMES AN EMPTY GESTURE THAT FAILS TO REVEAL THE SINCERE FEELINGS WE HAVE IN OUR HEARTS FOR YOU AT EAST SIDE. WE WILL ALWAYS CHERISH THE MANY DAYS WE SPENT WITH YOU. YOU WILL EVOKE FOND MEMORIES; AND THE MEMORIES, HAPPINESS.

Our Memories

Our Days

ACT I: "FRESHIES"

THE curtain rises to the first act, and in the distance can be seen the upper-classmen. At this moment the spotlight is upon us, the freshmen. It is an extremely hot day, but what are we freshmen sweating about? Plenty of time for that later.

As we approach the auditorium, we realize that we'll soon be heading somewhere else, for the assembly room is being painted. So up we trod to the boys' gym. Now this is more like it. Here among our own tribe, we feel right at home. Mr. Horwitz assigns us to our respective homerooms, and off we go.

This is the beginning of our adventure, and here the fun really begins. Oh, the smirks on the faces of those upper-classmen. Can't we freshmen get any cooperation around here? We ask a soph to direct us to the cafeteria and, with the utmost of courtesy, we are escorted to that ever popular Room 109. "How long can this go on?" we ask ourselves. But wait, what's this? An elevator in East Side? How do you like it, they're selling tickets for it!!

Thus comes to an end a year of adjusting and readjusting, and the fun that it brought with it. The riding we got was really worth it.

The first act is over, and a summer vacation is just the thing to settle freshman nerves..

ACT II: "SOPHS"

The curtain rises on the second act. Throughout East Side High can be seen the sophs. Leaving an old era and entering into a new one is something to boast about. This term is spent in looking forward to our Junior year. During this term we discover the enthusiasm of Mr. Lumb and of Miss Kraemer to greet us mornings. Personally, mind you! After becoming acquainted with Mr. Lumb, we discover that the outer office of 109 is 220—Oh, happy day!

As the East Siders are making their exit, the curtain descends upon the second act.

ACT III: "JUNIORS"

As the third act opens, the scene is one of peace and serenity. We are now mannerly and dignified (ahem!) students of East Side. We find our social life taking a turn. We run dances and have splendid results. Our dances are quite the thing, and very artistic. For example, the dance floor has the appearance of a doughnut—a hole in the middle and all our fine East Side dancers standing around. We actually have human decorations.

We hold the lead in sports, but then what would you expect? Our players are East Side MEN!!

During this semester, our advisers, Miss Nelligan and Mr. Sutton, play a leading role in our school lives. Our first elections are made in 11B and as President, Al Nortof (alias Van) takes the lead. Marie Basto is elected Vice-President, Jimmy Bell as Secretary, and last but not least, Steven Broznak as Treasurer. The 11A elections put into office Vincent Apruzzese as President, Marie Basto as Vice-President, Rosemarie Policastro as Secretary, and Steven Broznak as Treasurer.

We finally have wormed our way through a third year, and by golly, we made it. The curtain falls for a third time. The lights are cut, the school is dim and quiet.

ACT IV: "SENIORS"

The curtain rises on the fourth and final act. Making a grand entrance, poised and dignified are we, now full fledged Seniors. My, what four years can do for a person! This year again we hold the lead in sports, and socials are going at full blast.

Senior Recognition day is here, and take it from me, whoever started this "wreck" business had the right idea. Let's not forget the "Starlight Sleighride" Promenade. This night of nights is one to remember. The gym is decorated beautifully, and to add to all this color and splendour are the girls and boys. This is a night when girls really look like ladies, and boys, like men. The atmosphere is one that will long linger in our memories.

Elections for the first part of our Senior year result in Nick Di Pette as President, Marie Basto as Vice-President, Rosemarie Policastro as Secretary, and Steven Broznak for Treasurer. The results of the second half are the same with the exception of President. Vincent Apruzzese steps up a second time to take this office.

It is here and now that we extend our thoughts to the boys who have put down their books to take up arms to keep alive the symbol of America. We're proud of you boys, and we are honored to have you as part of our class, although you will not be with us on Commencement Day.

The curtain slowly falls upon the last act, leaving us with sadness in our hearts, but with smiles upon our lips.

Hall of Fame

INTRODUCTION

BECAUSE many of our classmates contributed much to East Side's fine scholastic teams during the last three years we, their fellow classmates, wish to set down in writing a tribute to their hard work. Their long hours of practice, preparation and well executed play on the field necessitate the dedication of this section of our "Torch" to the athletes of our class.

ALBERT NORTOF

Who hasn't heard of Al? He comes to one's attention in either of two ways: his athletic ability, or his superior scholarship.

He was tackle for two of our championship teams: City Champs, '44, Co-State Champs, '45. It goes without saying that Al did justice to those two victory banquets.

In addition to football, Al gained points for the Track Team when, as captain he placed in the shotput event.

Whether Al continues athletics in college, or not, he is destined to bring honor to East Side through his learning, friendliness and readiness to do his utmost in any undertaking.

PAUL ZAVOCKI

Paul started his football career back in 1944 when he played end for the J. V.'s, a position that requires speed, quick-thinking, and coordination of mind and body. Paul played this position well, but he was destined for an even more important spot in the line-up.

The '45 season found Paul in the backfield at halfback, and though he was not so highly publicized as the ball carriers he contributed much to our championship team.

But this boy won't have to rely on his athletic standing to win his place in the world, for he is another honor student who will go far in life as in school.

JOE CAYUELA

Another lad East Side may well be proud to claim is our own "Joe" who came into the limelight as the J. V.'s newest guard back in '43.

Coach Liddy was quick to recognize Joe's potential value to our gridiron eleven. This may be proven by the simple fact that Joe retained this position on the Varsity for the next two seasons.

Joe, also, need never have fears for what the future will bring as he will surely come out on top of the pile.

GORDON MARZANO

Good football players seem to run in the Marzano family. Like brothers Pete and Joe, Gordon was outstanding.

Gordon, showing promise in '43, played for Mr. Vanderhoof's J. V. team. In '44 and '45 he played guard and played it well for the varsity. The '45 season found Gordon captain of our State Championship team. Well done Gordon!

ANTHONY CHIRICO

When "Tony" came back to East Side in September '44, he was determined to go out for the football team. This first season found him playing on the J. V. line.

By the time another year had come and gone, he was playing center for the Varsity. At this spot in the line-up Tony made a good showing for himself with the kind of driving spirit that had made East Side a school to be feared by the overconfident.

In addition to playing football and doing a little warbling, Tony was also a member of East Side's track team back in '43.

ANDREW LISSY

"Andy", like many other of our classmates, learned football the hard way by starting at the bottom back in '43 with the J. V.'s.

'44 found Andy again playing back, the only change being that he played for Coach Liddy's City Champs.

In his senior year Andy played end; a position that he filled well.

Whether on the field or in a classroom this boy has always turned in his constant best.

GEORGE PAPSIN

It was back in '44 and '45 that George first began to show signs of value on the diamond. As pitcher, George turned in a plugging kind of performance that has won him the same position on the first team for the '46 season.

George, well liked by all, will long be remembered for the friendly and cheerful disposition that has made him a real East Sider.

NUFRIO MAROTTOLI

Nufrio or "Nosh" as he is better known, is quite a versatile ball player, as he can either play that second bag or catch, as Coach Bogatko sees fit. Nosh can play either of these positions equally well (and he's done it for two seasons).

Though small of stature, he is otherwise a giant, and is slated for a successful career.

RINGS

The "Voice with a Smile"

WHEN the nation needed her in the emergency of war, she had the task of speeding the calls that hastened victory. Often no less thrilling are the peacetime messages she handles today . . . a call that may save a life . . . an urgent message to someone a hundred or a thousand miles away . . . an answer that must be obtained.

There's something about telephone operating that makes each day interesting. Surroundings are pleasant—associates friendly—the pay is excellent from the start, with steady increases. It's career work in a service to the people of your community.

Interested? Talk to your Vocational Guidance Director. She can tell you more about this important work.

ONE profession . . . and a MASTER at it

WHEN you choose the profession you're going to follow . . . choose carefully, slowly. When you've decided, select one phase of that profession . . . and then concentrate on it! SPECIALIZE, study and work at your specialty until you know more about it than anyone else in the world.

The creed of specialization and perfection applies universally; to the man who builds better mousetraps, to the surgeon, or the engineer . . . or the photographer.

Academy Yearbook Photographers are SPECIALISTS in that precise sense. We are YEARBOOK Photographers, interested only in creating ever-finer YEARBOOK pictures.
